

Subchapter B--Relocation Allowances

PART 302-3--RELOCATION ALLOWANCES BY SPECIFIC TYPE

Subpart C--Types of Transfers

Sec.

- 302-3.207(a) What are the required time periods for completing an overseas assignment?
302-3.207(b) What is a local hire?
302-3.207(c) Are local hires living at a post of duty location eligible for an overseas assignment and/or tour renewal travel?

Subpart C--Types of Transfers

Overseas Assignment and Return

302-3.207(a) What are the required time periods for completing an overseas assignment?

The required periods for prescribed overseas assignments are:

Station	Minimum Tour
Hawaiian Islands, Guam, and American Samoa.....	2 years
All other islands in the Pacific area:
With family.....	2 years
Without family.....	1 year
Exceptions: Foreign areas.....	1 year unless otherwise indicated in service agreement
San Juan, Puerto Rico.....	2 years
Alaska.....	2 years
Exceptions: Barter Island, St. Paul Island, Cold Bay, Kotzebue, Barrow, and Adak.....	1 year

302-3.207(b) What is a local hire?

A local hire is an employee who is living at a post of duty location, and then hired at the same post of duty location.

302-3.207(c) Are local hires living at a post of duty location eligible for an overseas assignment and/or tour renewal travel?

You must contact the servicing HRO to determine if a local hire living at a post of duty location is eligible for an overseas assignment and/or tour renewal travel.